Directions

By road

There is no public parking at the hospital so we encourage patients and visitors not to travel by car where possible. Car park is available in Smithfield Car Park nearby. Please check on their website for pricing

St Bartholomew's Hospital is situated within the congestion charge zone. All patients and visitors who drive to the hospital are required to pay the charge, although there are some exemptions and discounts. These include:

- ♦ those with disabilities who hold a blue badge
- ♦ residents living within the congestion charging zone drivers of alternative fuel vehicles.

Most vehicles also need to meet the ULEZ emissions standards or you must pay a £12.50 daily charge to drive inside the zone.

There are a small number of parking bays for drivers with Blue Badges on site, these are accessed via Giltspur Street.

By Tube

The closest underground stations are Barbican, Blackfriars, Farringdon, Moorgate and St Paul's. All stations are between 6 and 15 minutes walk from St Bartholomew's Hospital.
