This is Amari and their mum.

They are going to the dental hospital because Amari's tooth hurts and it's hard to sleep and eat!

Amari says hello to the friendly dentist and nurse.

The dentist is looking in Amari's mouth to find out what tooth is hurting.

The dentist found the tooth that hurts. They will fix this next time.

Amari gets scared at the dentists, so they will have the tooth fixed with some relaxing medication.

Amari and their mum say bye to the dentist and nurse today. They will be back next time.

Amari and their mum are going to see the dentist today.

Today the tooth that hurts will be fixed.

Amari says hello to the friendly dentist and nurse.

The dentist is looking at the teeth in Amari's mouth.

The dentist puts a sleeve on Amari's arm. It gives Amari's arm a hug!

The dentist puts a clip on Amari's finger. It looks like a little hat with a red light and beeps.

The dentist puts a cream on Amari's arm and then a sticker on top.

The dentist then puts a tube into Amari's arm and the medication makes Amari feel happy and relaxed.

Amari calmly sits on the chair whilst the dentist and nurse fix his tooth. Amari is awake, happy, and relaxed.

Amari might forget this part!

After treatment is complete,
the sleeve hugs Amari's arm again and the clip on his finger beeps.

The dentist removes the tube from the arm and puts a sticker on top.

Amari and their mum can now go home.

They may see the dentist again soon.

Amari is happy and their mum is really proud of them!
